

2 ZERO HUNGER

Al-Qasim Green
University

APPROVED PROGRAMS

- ❖ Supporting research and studies related to agriculture, especially fruitful plants and how to multiply them.
- ❖ Supporting local production
- ❖ Reducing the phenomenon of malnutrition in children.
- ❖ Hunger eradication program and improving access to food.
- ❖ Livestock Conservation Program
- ❖ Sustainable agricultural extension program
- ❖ Supporting small and medium production projects
- ❖ Reducing the spread of extravagance and food waste
- ❖ General Services Program for Food Producers

2 ZERO HUNGER

UNIVERSITY POLICY IN ERADICATING HUNGER

- ❖ Supporting research and studies related to agriculture, especially fruitful plants and how to multiply them.
- ❖ Supporting research and studies concerned with the genetic diversity of cultivated plants
- ❖ Coordinating with the relevant authorities to create reserves for some species of plants and animals threatened with extinction.
- ❖ Developing a study on preserving plants and animals with financial returns and multiplying them.
- ❖ Facing weather conditions by improving sustainable agriculture
- Introducing the importance of genetic diversity of foods
- ❖ Improving the soil and eliminating waste that is harmful to it and disposing of it properly
- ❖ Encouraging research and studies related to animals, especially livestock, and how to preserve their diversity and multiply.
(conservation of livestock)
- ❖ Educating animal breeders and farmers about diseases that affect crops and livestock
- ❖ Activate the agricultural extension team